The I.L.A.M. welcomes subscriptions from individuals and associations who are interested in the study of African music and other arts.

The subscription to this issue is R10.00 (SA) $15.00 (US).

The Journal is sent to subscribers as it appears, together with the current invoice. Subscribers who renew in advance will have their subscription(s) credited to the next number(s) to appear. Payment further than two numbers ahead will be returned. Subscribers and subscription agencies are requested to note that African Music’s appearance is not primarily keyed to annual appearance, as intervals between issues are variable. Volume and Number numeration, however, are strictly consecutive, with four Numbers per Volume.

Back numbers

Four of the six Newsletters from 1948 and fourteen of the twenty-two back numbers of African Music from 1954 are available. Please request the list of I.L.A.M. publications for prices. Reprints of those out of stock may shortly be available again from Swets and Zeitlinger N.V., P.O. Box 810 2160 SZ, Lisse, The Netherlands.

Automation comes to African music! ‘Sholisho’, a mobile music puppet, sits behind his microphone and his MUSIC sign, on the verandah of a house in Chileka, Malawi, waiting for his owner to come and push him into action, his hand really striking the strings of the banjo and the drums being beaten. He was designed and made by 14 year old Bruce Mwachiwambo, of Chileka. Photograph by Moya Aliya Malamusi.
