Southern African Journal of Gerontology

Instructions to Authors

Editorial policy
The Journal publishes contributions (articles on original research, review articles, short communications, book reviews and commentary on articles already published) from any field of gerontology.

Contributions may be written in English or Afrikaans. An abstract must be provided in English. Articles in Afrikaans must also carry a more detailed summary in English.

All contributions will be critically reviewed by at least two reviewers on whose advice the contributions will be accepted or rejected by the Editorial Committee. All reviewing is strictly confidential. Manuscripts may be returned to the authors if extensive revision is required, or if the style or presentation does not conform to the Journal practice.

Copyright of all published material is vested with the HSRC/UCT Centre for Gerontology. However authors bear full responsibility for the factual correctness of their contributions. All opinions expressed in the contributions are those of the authors, and are not necessarily subscribed to by the Editorial Committee, the Editorial Advisory Panel, or the HSRC/UCT Centre for Gerontology.

Contributions accepted will be published, as far as possible, in the order in which they are received. Special (thematic) numbers will be prepared from time to time.

Presentation of manuscripts
Number: The original typed manuscript (with tables and illustrations) plus three clear copies must be submitted. Format: Manuscripts must be typed on one side only of A4 paper, double spaced with a left-hand margin of at least 30 mm and extra space above subtitles. The first line of all paragraphs must be indented. Layout of manuscripts: should be margin of at least 30 mm and extra space above subtitles. The first line contain the title of the article, the author(s)' name(s) and address(es), must commence on a new page and pages must be numbered consecutively. The manuscript should only contain information appearing in the article. Text: The text of all paragraphs must be indented. Abstracts and summaries must only contain information appearing in the article. Text: The text must commence on a new page and pages must be numbered consecutively. Breaking words at the end of a line should be avoided, except where a hyphen occurs. Words or symbols that are to be italicized in the text, must be underlined in the manuscript. Style: Authors should keep their language simple and formulate sentences clearly. Good and correct technical terminology should be used throughout. Repetition and circumlocution should be avoided. Numbers from one to twelve should be written out in the text, except where they are followed by symbols. Where a number is to be used at the beginning of a sentence it must be written out, but best be avoided. Only acknowledged abbreviations and symbols should be used and less well-known abbreviations should be declared. Notes must be numbered consecutively and appear at the end of the text under the caption 'Notes'; the numbers of the notes must be placed in the text to the right of any punctuation marks as unpunctuated superscripts. Footnotes should be avoided.

References: Two kinds of references must be used, namely short references in the text and more detailed references at the end of the manuscript. References in the text: When word-for-word quotations, facts or arguments from other sources are cited, the surname(s) of the author(s), year of publication and page number(s) must appear in parentheses in the text, e.g. (Lawton, 1975:12), (Lawton & Cohen, 1974:195). When an entire reference is cited, it is not necessary to list the page number(s). References at the end of the manuscript: More details about sources referred to in the text must appear at the end of the manuscript (after the notes, if any) under the caption 'References'. The sources must be arranged alphabetically according to the surnames of the authors. When more than one publication of the same author(s) is referred to, they must be arranged chronologically according to years of publication; if more than one publication of the same author(s) appeared in one year they must be distinguished by a, b, etc., e.g. (Holmes, 1983a, 1983b). The abbreviation 'Anon.' should be used when the author of a publication is unknown and 'n.d.' when the year of publication is not available. Note the use of capitals, punctuation marks and italics in the following examples:

Two authors

Collection

Article in a collection

Journal article

D. Phil thesis

Unpublished manuscript

Newspaper report

Personal communication

Tables should be presented on separate A4 sheets and grouped together at the end of the manuscript. They should be numbered in Arabic numerals (Table 1) and should bear short yet adequate descriptive captions. Their appropriate positions in the text should be indicated. Footnotes to tables should be designated by lower-case letters which appear as unpunctuated superscripts to appropriate entries. Illustrations (figures) should be prepared on separate A4 sheets. One set of original illustrations on good quality drawing paper should accompany each submission. All original illustrations must be fully identified on the back. Authors should use proper drawing equipment giving uniform lines and lettering of a size which will be clearly legible after reduction. Freehand or typewritten lettering and lines are not acceptable. Authors are requested to pay particular attention to the proportions of illustrations so that they can be accommodated in single (86 mm) or double (179 mm) columns after reduction, without wastage of space. Illustrations must be numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals (Figure 1) and descriptive captions should be listed on a separate sheet. All illustrations should be grouped together at the end of the manuscript and their appropriate positions in the text should be indicated.

Reprints: Twenty (20) reprints of contributions are provided free to the sole or senior author, who must see to an equitable distribution if more than one author is concerned. Additional reprints may be ordered after publication from the Editor.

Editorial address: Manuscripts for publication should be submitted to the Editor, SAGJ, HSRC/UCT Centre for Gerontology, University of Cape Town, Medical School, Observatory, 7925, Republic of South Africa.
Southern African Journal of Gerontology

Volume 1 Number 1 October 1992
SAJG 1(1) 1-24 (1992)
ISSN 1019-8016

Contents

Generational interdependence: living arrangements and housing programmes
M.P. Lawton .......................................................... 1

Successful ageing in South Africa: opportunity structures and subjective wellbeing
Valerie Møller & Monica Ferreira ................................ 5

Social research for empowerment: the case of South African seniors
Valerie Møller ...................................................... 9

The epidemiology and presentation of depression in the elderly
F.V.C. Potocnik .................................................... 14

Depression in newly-urbanized elderly South Africans
L.S. Gillis ............................................................. 20

Copyright 1992 by the HSRC/UCT Centre for Gerontology. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, including electronic, mechanical, photographic, magnetic or other means, without the prior written permission of the copyright holder.