CONTRIBUTIONS TO AFRICAN MUSIC

Contributions to the Journal African Music will be welcomed by the Editors from all sources. It is hoped to include a major article each year upon the various aspects of our special study in particular under the following headings which may be a guide to prospective contributors.

- SOCIOLOGY . . . The content of songs, their social setting and background.
 - LINGUISTICS . . . The relationship between tone, stress and melody in speech and music, lyrics and poetry.
 - MUSICOLOGY . . . The structure and form of African music, both vocal and instrumental, together with the technique of manufacture and performance upon instruments.
 - DANCING . . . The position of dancing in African society and its effect upon musical structure.
 - AESTHETICS . . . The appreciation of African music as an art form.
 - ALLIED ARTS . . . The study of other African arts, mural designs, pattern making and sculpture in their relationship to the oral patterns of music.
 - RELIGIOUS . . . The use and adaptation of African music for religious purposes both indigenous and foreign.
 - AFRO-AMERICAN . . . The connection between the music of this continent and African derived musics elsewhere.
- Etc., etc.

The Society is not yet in a position to pay for articles, but contributors will receive copies of off-prints of their articles, free of charge.
